

An evening with Carl Battreall and the Art of Outdoor Photography

Saturday, October 7, 7PM

Z.J. Loussac Library

3600 Denali St.

Ann Stevens Room, Level 3

Carl Battreall has been a professional outdoor photographer for over 25 years, and is best known for his long-term outdoor photography projects.

His extraordinary fine art prints are in numerous private and public collections in Alaska and North America. Carl has been teaching classes in outdoor photography and wilderness travel since 1995.

